PRAIRIE CREEK DITCH.

Contractor J. B. Patterson finished the Prairie Creek irrigation ditch and turned it over to the farmer owners, Monday.WOOL SALE BEGAN YESTERDAY 1 P. M.Practically Whole Clip of County Stored
Here.TWELVE BUYERS
ON THE GROUNDHighest Bid at Joseph Was 16 1-4c—Nine Houses Represented—The Two First SalesThe wool sale began in Enterprise at 1 o'clock Friday, and the sampling and examination of the product occupied several hours. There were twelve buyers present, on the floor of the warehouse, representing nine houses.The first sale was made at 2:30 when Longfellow & Arnold accepted a bid of 15½ cents for 70,175 pounds.
The wool was bought by S. F. Frankenstein of Hecht, Libman & Co.The second sale was made by J.
H. Dobbin who accepted the bid of 16 5-8 cents per pound, the highest price offered so far at either Joseph or Enterprise. The bid was on 155-143 pounds, and was made by C. W.
Ryder of Crimmins & Pierce.The top price offered in Joseph Friday morning was 16¼ cents per pound. This offer was made for the C. L. Hartshorn clip, and it is understood that no sale has yet been consummated there. Up to about 2 o'clock Friday afternoon the sale in the Enterprise warehouse was confined to examinations of the various clips in storage.

Clip of County Here.

Practically the whole clip of the county is in the warehouse here.
Joseph has something like 250,000 pounds in storage. Here there are nearly 1,000,000 pounds on the floor for sale, representing forty-one different clips, or different wool growers. This is light, as was anticipated.The special car bearing the wool buyers, or the "bosses" representing the houses, was brought in Thursday evening and sidetracked here. The buyers went on to Joseph, returning to Enterprise Friday at about noon.TWO WEDDINGS HERE WITHIN THE WEEKTwo quiet weddings were observed in Enterprise Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The young people, Harry D. Miller and Miss Effie Straley, both of Joseph, were quietly married by W. P. Samms, Wednesday evening. The ceremony was a private one.The second wedding was observed Thursday morning, when the Rev.
C. E. Trueblood united in marriage Luther A. Pinkley of Prairie Creek and Miss Ida Young of this city, or near here on Trout Creek. Those who attended the second wedding were the mother of the bride and Miss Arla Young, a sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Young, and a younger brother, Master Curtis Young.
The newly married people will live on Prairie Creek where the groom owns a splendid ranch.SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET AT JOSEPH A SUCCESSA number of Enterprise persons attended the Sunday school convention at Joseph Wednesday evening, returning home the same night or the following morning. A. J. Boeh-mer attended with practically his whole class from the Presbyterian church here. Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. E. J. Forsythe, Mrs. T. M. Dill, Mrs. A. F. Foley, Mrs. Saunders, and the Revs. W. H. Gibson and Samuel Harris were among those who attended from here.Rev. Phipps was one of the attractions on the program, and spoke in Enterprise Friday night. He was well received here as well as in Joseph during the convention.HURRAH FOR AUTO TRIPS TO AND FROM LAKE.Those wishing to go to the lake for the Fourth should purchase their tickets at once of Rodgers Bros., at the garage. Tickets including a launch ride across the lake are on sale. Machine leaves Enterprise hotel corner every hour.G. I. Ratcliff is closing out his entire stock of musical instruments, consisting of organs, violins, guitars, banjos, accordians, etc., at cost.Fair Committee Holds MeetingExecutive Board in Session Settles Upon Premium List. County Must Unify.The executive committee of the Fair association met last Tuesday night in the office of A. C. Miller, and settled upon the premium list for the coming Wallowa county fair.
The list will be printed and sent forth in due time. In comparison with the lists of other fairs, that decided upon by the board at this meeting holds first rank, and the premiums are much higher than those offered by older and more widely advertised county fairs.In interview with an Enterprise business man it was properly stated that it "is important to keep before the residents of the county the fact that this is a Wallowa county movement, in which every resident has an interest at stake." That is the spirit that will make the fair a suc-cess from the start. Every farmer or rancher in the county can so advantage the county agriculturally and otherwise, by placing his produce on exhibition, that rapid settlement and increased value of farm lands will be a most logical climax. Thus the success of the Wallowa county fair while depending in a wide measure upon the farmer, will ultimately benefit the farmer perhaps more than any other resident. And it ought to benefit him. He is the man by whose toil we all have bread and meat, wool and clothing, fuel and comfort. Moreover, it is plain that the farming portion of the county is awake to the importance of holding the greatest fair in our history, this fall.JUNE REAL ESTATE
